BUCKET SHOP MEN TO BE TRIED HERE

of dollars. It was brought out in the course of the department's preliminary investigation that one concern alone did a business of about 100,000 shares a day, the most of it in ten-share lots, and on a margin of two points.

Price & Company, of Baltimore, alone were said to have 11,000 miles of leased wire, for which they pay $40 a month for each office, and also a mileage charge. The government offices had been thorough in getting evidence against these branch concerns. Their agents had put in orders and then had the slips issued by the managers photographed before turning them back to complete the transaction.

While certain of the government's agents were working the game in the company's offices, others had tapped the wires and had found, so it is alleged, that no buying or selling orders had been transmitted over the wire to the Philadelphia Consolidated Exchange.

Evidence Was Taken. With this evidence and more that was obtained in the raids in its possession, the Department of Justice summoned several customers of the three firms, and also minor employees from each, before the Federal grand jury here, and from them the government authorities obtained further corroboration of their beliefs.

The brokers themselves had no idea that Attorney General Wickham was going to dig up this novel method of proceeding against them. They felt secure in the belief that only the men who are operating the branch offices could be touched, and, besides, they have been led to believe that it was the Post-office Department, and not the Department of Justice, that was after them.

The action of the Department of Justice is not the first evidence that Attorney General Wickham has given of an ability to apply existing laws in a new way. The action against the alleged bucketshop men is the first fruit borne by the bureau of investigators, which was established for the Department of Justice after Congress had limited the powers of the Secret Service force in making investigations. The Attorney General, under the appropriations voted to him, hired a lot of bright young lawyers.

This statement respecting the cases was given out yesterday by the Department of Justice.

The grand jury for the District of Columbia returned three indictments in connection with the operation of bucketshops in the District of Columbia.

Committed an Offense. "In the first indictment Richard E. Preusser, Leo Mayer, George Turner, William H. Lillis, Oliver J. Robinson, Edward S. Boggs, Harry Owens, Robert A. Guy, Al Ford, Marshall F. Parrish, Edward E. Taylor, and Harry Johnson are charged with conspiracy to commit an offense against the United States.

"Preusser is reported to be a notorious gambler, who was convicted of the murder of one Miles McDonald some years ago, as a result of which he was confined for a year in an institution for insane convicts.

"Mayer is a well-known bookmaker, and Turner is said to have been expelled from the New York Stock Exchange, and with Lillis, has been connected with some of the most notorious bucket shop concerns in the country. A number of the men named in this indictment are well known as bucket shop operators.

"This indictment has two counts, one count covering each of the offices maintained by Taylor in this city.

"In the second indictment Edward Altemus, Lewis Cella, Angelo Cella, Samuel Raymond, Oscar J. Rappel, Robert Hall, Henry C. Stumpf, Henry R. Duryee, and Charles R. Alley are the defendants. Duryee maintained an office in the Evans Building, 1420 New York avenue northwest, in this city, at which place Alley was employed as telegrapher.

The Third Indictment. "In the third indictment William B. Price, Virgil P. Randolph, Henry M. Randolph, Charles T. Morehead, Edward Welden, James A. Anderson, Joseph Watkins, Thomas H. Campbell, and Edward Everett Taylor are the defendants. Price, the two Randolphs, Morehead, Welden, Anderson, and Watkins are connected with the firm of William B. Price & Co., of Baltimore, of which concern Taylor was a correspondent prior to his becoming the representative of Boggs & Co., the first part of September, 1909.

"The total number of offices maintained by the three concerns whose principal members have been indicted amount to more than 250, and the territory covered by them ranges from New England to Oklahoma. A representative of Price & Co. has been convicted of running a bucket shop at Norfolk, Va., and one of the indicted men connected with the Price concern is a fugitive from justice in another jurisdiction. It is believed that the return of these indictments and the prosecution of the defendants therein will do a great deal toward destroying the operations of bucket shops throughout the country."

NEW YORK BUCKETSHOP BROKERS FURNISH BAIL.

New York, April 2.—Commissioner Shields held Robinson, Mayer & Prusser in $5,000 bail each for examination on April 11. Bail was furnished.

While the members of Boggs & Co. were being arraigned the telephone bell rang and a voice asked:

"If we come down and surrender, will you see to it that we're not arrested here?"

also was not obtained, it seems, and Owens came to Philadelphia, arriving only a short time before the Federal agents entered the place.

Each of the prisoners were held under $2,500 bail for a further hearing on next Friday by U. S. Commissioner Craig in the post-office building. Bail was obtained in each case after considerable difficulty.

PRICE BROKERAGE OFFICES IN BALTIMORE RAIDED.

Baltimore, April 2.—As part of the bucket shop raids, special agents of the government came to Baltimore this morning, and promptly at 11 o'clock swooped down on the office of William B. Price & Co., in the Equitable building, where four of a group of members of the firm and employees who had been indicted for conspiracy were arrested. The men found in the offices were James A. Anderson, Edward Waldron, Harry M. Randolph, and Charles T. Morehead.

Price walked into the United States marshal's office soon after 12 o'clock and surrendered himself.

The other local men against whom indictments have been returned, and who are still at large, are Virgil P. Randolph, Joseph Watkins, Thomas H. Campbell, and Edward Everett Taylor, Washington correspondent. The men arrested were released on $5,000 bail, this being the amount demanded by District Attorney Rose.

The men caught in the offices said they were simply employees of the firm of William B. Price & Co.

Despondency Causes Suicide. Coroner Nevitt has issued a certificate of death by suicide in the case of Thomas E. Ertler, twenty-six years old, whose body was found in the kitchen of his home, at 45 E street southwest, yesterday morning by his mother, Mrs. Bertha Long. Death resulted from the inhalation of illuminating gas. It is said Ertler had made several threats to end his life, although the cause of the despondency has not been learned.

Sanger, B. Gudorf, A. Seidinger, J. Huddelheimer.

Women to Entertain. The committees who will have charge of the entertainment of visiting women are: Council of Jewish Women's committee—Mrs. Charles Goldsmith, president; Mrs. A. Sanders, Mrs. M. D. Rosenberg, Mrs. Simon Wolf, Mrs. Joel Hillman, Mrs. R. B. Behrend, Mrs. Simon Oppenheimer, Mrs. Les Baumgarten, Mrs. Adolf Kahn, Mrs. M. Marx, Mrs. Alex Wolf, Mrs. Max Cohen, Mrs. Rabbi Stern, Mrs. I. Newman, Mrs. James Lashburgh.

Auxiliary Society of the temple committee—Mrs. A. Salinger, president; Mrs. Abraham Simon, Mrs. Levi H. David, Mrs. Joseph Able, Mrs. Z. Strassburger, Mrs. I. Grosser, Mrs. Sam Gans, Mrs. M. Newman, Mrs. S. Gassenheimer, Mrs. I. Saks, Mrs. Marx E. Kahn, Mrs. R. Gans, Mrs. C. Pickard, Mrs. A. J. Heilman, Mrs. B. Sinsheimer.

Robbed by Negro Thugs. Benjamin F. Lawson, of 449 E street northeast, was held up and robbed by two negroes in N street, between Fourth and Fifth streets northwest, about 12:30 this morning. The highwaymen got $45 and made their escape.

ATTEMPTS SUICIDE IN MIDST OF GAYETY

William Long Drinks Chloroform at College Inn.

The orchestra had just played "Home, Sweet Home," last night down at the College Inn, Eighth and D streets, and the rooms were filled with men and women making merry at midnight, when William Long, twenty-six years old, of 2133 K street northwest, arose to his feet and drained a small bottle of chloroform.

He was rushed to Emergency Hospital in an ambulance, and an hour later his condition was serious, but it is believed he will live. The cafe was thrown into an uproar, and several women fainted.

Long had been drinking with two friends in the center of the brilliantly lighted resort. He was moody and despondent, and more than one woman watched him as he sat twirling his glass when the musicians swung into the mellow notes of the air that comes just before they put their instruments away.

As the last strains died, Long arose a trifle unsteadily and held up his hands for silence. The clatter of knives and forks ceased for a moment, and with every one watching him wonderingly, he slowly drew a vial from his pocket and swallowed the contents before one of his companions knocked it from his hand.

There was an instant's silence, and a woman's scream rang out, starting general confusion. Long was carried to another room, groaning, and police headquarters was notified. At the hospital he refused to say why he wanted to take his life, and his companions had disappeared.
